LOCAL HAPPENINGS

What our neighbors and friends are doing that interest us all.

U. H. Long, of near Willett, was in town Monday.

Gene Canter, of Carthage, insurance writer, was in Gainesboro last week looking after business.

Misses Mary Quarles and Oda Herod, of Jennings creek, are visiting friends in Cookeville.

Mrs. Tennie Roddy, has returned to Nashville. She was accompanied by her mother, Mrs. Kibbie Williams.

Buy your Boiled Ham and Breakfast Bacon at Haile's Grocery and save money. Its fresh and delicious. adv.

B. C. Jones and daughter, Vera, after visiting relatives at Rough Point, have returned to Cookeville.

Misses Christine and Louise Settle have returned from Nashville and Crossville, where they spent the past two weeks with relatives.

E. M. Hix, after a two weeks visit with relatives on the north side of Cumberland river, has returned to his home in Ventura, Calif.

Mr. and Mrs. Bumps Stewart and son Ray, of Franklin, Ky., have been the guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Richmond at Rough Point.

Miss Bonnie Shoulders has returned from a week's visit in Gallatin. She was accompanied home by Miss Adaline Marks, who will be her guest several days.

Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Haile have returned from a two weeks visit with Mr. Haile's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Haile, of Gallatin, R-1. They attended the Gallatin fair while there.

R. C. Wilson, of Ranger, Texas, after a three weeks visit with relatives in the second district, has returned home. Mr.
Wilson is formerly of this county, having left here four years ago.

Miss Lellie Draper has returned from St. Louis and Cincinnati, where she purchased her fall and winter millinery.
New hats are already coming in, and she will be delighted to have her friends call and see them.

The Fourth Quarterly Conference for the Gainesboro Mission, will be held at Flynn's Lick Sept. 10 and 11. The public is invited to be present, and especially the officials of the church.

Mr. and Mrs. Grady Cason, of Carthage, were guests of relatives on R-2, last week. Mr.
Cason, who conducts the Carthage Marble Works, reports a good business in this section this trip, having taken several orders for some real handsome tombstones.

Mrs. B. L. Quarles gave a party Friday evening for her little son and daughter. Grundy and Ada Sue. About 30 guests were present. Games and music featured in the entertainment, while punch was served between games. The little host and hostess were assisted in receiving and entertaining their little guests by Misses Meriam and Ruth Quarles.

Mrs. N. W. Herod and son Charles, of Willett, have been visiting relatives here this week.

Jim Draper, of Draper & Draper Co., left Sunday for St. Louis, where he will purchase a big bill of Merchandise for all the departments of the store.

Opal Jared of Cookeville, entered school here Monday. She is staying with her aunt, Mrs. Will Byrne.

Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Young and baby, of Gallatin, are visiting relatives in Gainesboro and Jennings creek.

Bro. Early will not be able to fill his appointment at Flynn's Lick Sunday morning, on account of his meeting at Woodrow, which will continue until Sunday night.

B. L. Quarles and Miss Mona Sadler, of Quarles and Reeves Co., have returned from a two weeks stay in St. Louis and Cincinnati, where they purchased a big line of Dry goods, Notions, etc., for the firm.

Haskell, the little 5 year old son of Leslie Petty, of Gipson Hollow, who fell from a tree several days ago and sustained a bad fracture of the skull, is reported to be in a critical condition, and little hope is entertained for his recovery.

Mark Minor, of Cookeville, after spending a week as the guest of Mark Tardy, returned home Sunday afternoon. The two Marks tried their luck at fishing in Cumberland river several days, but it was bad, and they gave it up. However they enjoyed the time spent just the same.

The name "W. C. Davis" appearing in the teachers program for Saturday, August 26th, was meant for Prof. C. W. Davis, of Gainesboro, R-3. Mr. Davis will be expected to come forward and explain his methods of teaching the fundamentals of arithmetic to the other good teachers, who will be present on that day.

Elder Marion Harris, of Meagsville, has just closed a week's revival meeting at Dudney's Hill. There were 42 additions to the church. Large crowds were in attendance, and much interest was shown throughout the meeting. The Dudney Hill music class had charge of the singing, which was a special feature of the revival.

Draper & Draper Co., have advertised a big ONE DAY Aluminum Sale at their store on Saturday, Aug. 26, the like of which has never been seen in Gainesboro. All kinds of aluminum-ware articles will be found in this sale. Get ready to attend this great sale and take advantage of these bargains.
Sale starts at 9 o'clock Saturday morning. Come early and get picking choice of the articles.
Remember it is one day only.
Don't forget the date, and don't fail to attend.

M. B. Smith, who lives on the Brook's Ferry road, while gathering up eggs at his barn a few weeks ago, found a large chicken snake stretched out in the loft. It had visited all the nests and made a clean sweep of every egg in sight, and having such a ravenous appetite, the old scrapper swallowed a big white door-knob, which was used as a substitute for a nest egg. The knob was evidently lying heavy on the old fellow's constitution, from the fact that he paid no attention, or made any attempt to escape when Mr. Smith soused a pitchfork through its head.
Mr. Smith said he cut into the snake and got the door knob but the eggs were a complete loss.

Mrs. H. L. Baugh is visting in Granville

Mr. and Mrs. Fowler Loftis and children, Georgia, Basil and Andrew Morgan, left today (Thursday) for Coalinga, Calif., after an extended visit with relatives on R-2.

Bible Thoughts for the Week

DEATH OR LIFE:—To be carnally minded is death; but to be spiritually minded is life and peace.— Romans 8: 6.

DELIVERANCE AT HAND:—I will be with him in trouble; I will deliver him.—Psalm 91: 15.

SAFEGUARDED:—He shall give his angles charge over thee, to keep thee in all thy ways.—Psalm 91: 11.

DEFRAUD NOT:—For this is the will of God, that no man defraud his brother in any matter.—1 Thessalonians 4: 3, 4.

AN UNLIMITED SUPPLY.—If ye abide in me, and my words abide in you, ye shall ask what ye will,
and it shall be done unto you.—John 15: 7.

ELKINS—COX

The marriage of Mrs. Ara Cox, of the sixth district of this county, and J. B. Elkins, of Gainesboro, was quietly solemnized Saturday, August 19, Esq.
Charlie Taylor officiating.

Mr. Elkins is one of our newly elected constables of the first district, and conducts a blacksmith shop in this city. He has numerous friends and is held in high esteem by all who know him.

The bride is the widow of the late Walter Cox, and was Miss Ara Barlow before her first marriage.

FIRE DESTROYS RESIDENCE

The home of Mr. and Mrs.
Andrew Burris, half mile north of town, was destroyed by fire Saturday at noon, with most of its contents. The fire originated in the kitchen. Mr. and Mrs.
Burris had just ate dinner and were sitting on the front porch.
In a few minutes Mrs Burris returned to the kitchen to wash the dishes and found the room almost in a mass of flames.
The alarm soon reached town, and a number of citizens rushed to the scene, but the blaze had gained such headway that made it dangerous and risky to enter the building. Only an article or two was gotten out.

The dwelling belonged to Jesse Williams and was insured for $750.00. Burris carried no insurance on his household goods.

Boost The County Fair.

The premium list for the County Fair to be held here October 6 and 7, appears on pages one and four of this issue.
The list is published free of charge and for the purpose of giving our readers ample time to prepare their exhibits. Keep this paper for future reference, as this is the only time the premium list will be published in the Sentinel.

The general manager, Mr.
S. G. Rogers, reports everything moving along nicely and the prospects for a record breaking fair are flattering. He expects to have the premium catalogues ready to hand out within a couple of weeks.

Lets all be boosters for the fair. Don't set back and do nothing and after its all over criticise some one else, who did all he could to make it a success.
Get some gingerine in you and do something to help the cause, if its nothing but a little donation about the size of a dollar, or two dollars. Talk about it, dream about it, and tell your neighbor about it. Cooperation is what it takes. Lets cooperate.

Enjoyable House Party.

Among the delightful events of last week, was the house party given by Miss Annette Draper, at her home on College Street, in honor Miss Virginia Voden, of Elmwood, Tenn.,

Misses Clemma Master and Mary Elizabeth Maxwell, of Cookeville.

Many delightful features were enjoyed among which, was a picnic supper Sunday night; a spend-the-night party at the Miss Blanche Darwin's home at the Riverside Farm, on Tuesday night. On Wednesday noon, Mrs. J. M. Draper entertained with a lovely luncheon, followed by a swimming party in the afternoon.

Bart Fox, 96, Enjoys Party.

BONAHAM, TEXAS. July 6—Simp Moore of this city gives a party on the night of July 4 every year. To this gathering he invites every person over 70 years old, and he also sends out special invitations to others not so old.

At this party Tuesday night, among others, was Bart Fox, of Dodd City, 96 years old, and possibly the oldest man in Fannin County. Mr. Fox enjoyed the party very much, as did the others.—Clipping from Bonham News.

Mr. Fox spoken of in the above article was born and reared on Flynn's creek, in the 11th district of Jackson County, Tennessee, but has been a non-resident of this state for the past 54 years. He is an uncle of J. A. Haile, of Flynn's Lick, and J. B. Billingsley, of R 3, and numerous other relatives in the county, who will be glad to learn of his whereabouts, and to know that he is still enjoying himself in his older days.

It's the songs ye sing and the smiles ye wear thats making the sunshine everywhere.
